

Resume/CV

Emerson Brady

Student

503-970-1049

Eugene, Oregon

emersonbrady@gmail.com

Summary: An accomplished journalism student with experience in writing, documentary work and photography.

Education:

- The University of Oregon (2019- Present)

List of Experience:

Producer/Director, Sisterhood of the Traveling Semi (a documentary), (July 2022- Present)

- I am directing and producing a documentary about the nation-wide female trucking group, Women in Trucking.

Music Blog Director, KWVA Campus Radio, (November 2022-Present)

- I am in charge of a team of writers who produce music journalism pieces for the University of Oregon's radio station, KWVA. I also produce a radio show every Monday.

Documentary Intern, St. Christopher Studio, (August 2022-Winter 2023)

- Documentary Intern for the documentary film, Mama Faru Duties. Duties include research, choosing archival footage, and organizing archives. Worked under award-winning director, Marion Mauran and Academy Award-winning director, Mitchell Block.

Producer/Director, Connecting the Dots (a documentary short), (Winter 2022-Fall 2022)

- Co-produced and directed a documentary about how Eugene's oldest film store, Dot Dotsons. I pitched the idea, interviewed the subjects, and assisted in editing.

Writer, Clark Honors College Magazine, (2021-2022)

- I attended weekly meetings and pitched stories revolving around the Clark Honors College at the University of Oregon.

Writer, Ethos Magazine, (2021-Present)

- I work with a team of photographers to produce one long-form journalistic piece for the magazine per term. I wrote the winter 2021 cover story.

Writing Editor, Align, (2020-2021)

- Oversees 20-30 writers, edits pieces for print and blog and writes at least one feature story per term.

Skills: Adobe creative suite, AP style, Microsoft word/office, directing, video, reporting, writing, freelance Merits: Awarded the Lucien P. Arant memorial scholarship (2021).

References:

Mitchell Block, Academy Award Winning Documentarian and Professor at the University of Oregon. mblock@uoregon.edu

